

First Nations Menu Board

Name: _____

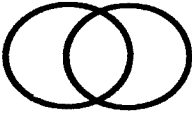

You must choose 2 tasks from the grid below.

Put an X inside the small boxes to show your chosen tasks.

On the back of this sheet you will find lists of items that need to be included for each of these tasks.

All work must be handed in by _____.

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Write Game Instructions Research a popular First Nations game, and write a "How To Play _____" instruction page for the game. | <input type="checkbox"/> Create a Craft Create a First Nations craft of your choice to share with the class.  | <input type="checkbox"/> Perform a Myth Myths and legends are very important to First Nations groups. With some classmates, turn the legend into a play and perform it for the class. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Compare 2 First Nations Groups Make a Venn diagram to compare 2 First Nations Groups.  | <input type="checkbox"/> Create a Scrapbook Create a scrapbook for one First Nations group, showing information about their clothing, housing, food, family structure and living conditions. | <input type="checkbox"/> Give a Presentation Use computer software to create a presentation giving information about one of the First Nations groups that lived in your province or territory. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Make a Collage Using magazines, create a collage of words to describe the qualities of a First Nations leader. | <input type="checkbox"/> Create a Flipbook Create a flipbook to show how at least 3 different First Nations groups governed themselves. | <input type="checkbox"/> Make a Speech Take on the role of "Chief" of one of the First Nations groups we have studied, and give a speech about your group's system of governing itself. |